TESTIMONIAL FOR MARC LACHANCE

Marc Lachance will be good for your business. He certainly proved to be a great asset in helping me decide where to place some strategic energy.

I was having difficulty keeping track of my financial status week by week. This was due to my inexperience using my bookkeeping software.

Using some skillful questioning he zeroed in on what it was that I should be doing with my computer software. Separate the training from the day-to-day activities, he recommended. It worked. My productivity with QuickBooks rose and my anxiety subsided.

Marc has had a significant amount of experience in the business world. As Jim Collins noted in his book 'Good To Great', get the right people on the bus. Your business bus will be a lot better with Marc in one of the seats.
